

A Balanced Budget – But At What Cost?

On April 20th, the day before the 2015 Harper Budget, ask yourself the following questions:

- What does a “balanced budget at any cost” really mean for public service employees and the Canadians they serve?
- Are cutbacks in the federal public service adversely affecting your ability to perform your work?

In the National Capital Region, the Public Service Alliance of Canada (PSAC), the Canadian Association of Professional Employees (CAPE) and the Professional Institute of the Public Service of Canada (PIPSC) will be holding mobilization and information activities at the following locations:

Ottawa	Gatineau
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Tunney’s Pasture ✓ Minto Place, 344 Slater (corner of Laurier) ✓ Place de Ville (Towers A, B, and C (Albert Street, corner of Kent) ✓ Jean-Edmunds Building, 300 Slater 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Portage - Terrasses (lunch time march on Promenade du Portage) ✓ Translation Bureau and Passport Canada, 70 Crémazie Street (information table in the lobby) ✓ Library and Archives, Place de la Cité

Between noon and 1:00 p.m., come meet with your union representatives, local officers and stewards to obtain the latest collective bargaining updates as well as information on what your union can do to restore the real balance in your workplace and country .

#Every19th #Plus1 #Tousles19 #Plus1

